THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday, June 16, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

First of July.

On this day, the first of July next, the time for which many of our subscribers to the Daily have paid, will expire. We trust they will all renew in due time. We are contemplating considerable improvements in the Sentinel, about that time.

In Arreares.

Many of our friends are in arreares to us for the Daily, sent to them before the 1st of April last. We are waiting on them patiently to remit.

Negro Suffrage.

This question now is a very different one from the question of the suffrage of free negroes, as in former years. The free people of color felt themselves to be an isolated class, and to a great extent friendless. Both the whites and slaves, ignored them. Hence they threw themselves upon white men of wealth and position, as their protectors and best friends, and it was an easy matter for such men to control them in an election. As matters now stand, the case is entirely changed. Under the teachings of their liberators, both the former slaves and free negroes, have affiliated—have come to regard each other as equals, and being equal to the whites before the law, many of them have come to regard the more intelligent colored people as wiser and better than the whites.

Giving to the colored people generally, the right of suffrage would lead to the worst consequences. We doubt if the whites, either North or South could exert a controlling influence over them, except upon an inconsiderable number. They would be led mostly by the more intelligent colored men among them.—Divisions, discord and turbulence would predominate, and those whose views of liberty are most pernicious and dangerous to the rights of property and the peace of society, would always be in the ascendant.

The most extravagant views of the most radical men at the North, do not come up to their standard of what is due them in their new condition. Amalgation or miscegenation is not what they desire. Indeed the more intelligent oppose all approaches to either. There is quite enough of white blood among them in their estimation. Liberty and equality in their estimation are poor boons, without an equal division of property. Give them the right to vote, and agrarianism would become universal among them.

Basis of Representation.

We lay before our readers to-day the very able speech of Mr. Bynum, of Lincoln, in the Convention, in favor of the proposition to fix both for the Senate and House of Commons, the basis of representation, upon the number of white population. It combines the strength of the argument in favor of that measure.

In our next issue we hope to be able to lay before our readers the able speech of Mr. Conigland, of Halifax, on the other side of the question.

The Stay Law.

Most of the day on yesterday was consumed by the Convention in the discussion of the various amendments proposed to Judge Howard's bill. It passed its second reading, and we judge from the vote it will become a law, with slight amendment as it came from the committee.—Should the bill pass, as soon as perfected, we shall give it to our readers.

Gov. Worth.

We gather from the tone of the press in general in the State, and from gentlemen conversant with the views of the people generally, that the feelings of the people seem to have settled down upon the idea, that Gov. Worth has done and is doing, so well, that they had better let "well enough alone." The idea of opposition to him, so far as the masses are concerned, in the next canvass, will not be entertained.

Old Franklin.

This loyal County, it will be seen, has spoken out in favor of Andrew Johnson and Jonathan Worth, in unmistakable terms. We learn it was one of the largest meetings which have been held in the County for many years. The resolutions were acted upon with great unanimity. We hope to see the ball kept rolling.

Borrowing Newspapers.

Some of our subscribers are unmercifully treated by those who will not take newspapers for themselves. A subscriber informs us, that he seldom can get a peep at the Sentinel because it is taken possession of as soon as it arrives. To cure the evil he has actually sent us a subscription and ordered the Sentinel to be sent to a borrower, that he may get a sight of his own.

Goldsboro' News.

We are glad to learn that this spirited paper will be revived next week. Its Editor, Col. Pool, is determined to devote his energies to it. It will give no uncertain sound. Success to it.

Mail Contracts, &c.

The following from Dr. Jobe, the Special Mail Agent for this State, will give the requisite information to our people, in regard to mail contracts, Postmasters, &c.

We are glad to learn that Dr. Jobe is about to visit the Mountain District, in order to facilitate the opening of Post offices and post routes in that section. We are pleased to be able to say, that the Doctor is exerting himself to afford us mail facilities:

OFFICE OF SPECIAL AGENT,

By request of members of the Convention, I publish a short synopsis of the regulations of the Post-Office Department, so that each member may procure a copy for reference.

1. No bid for conveying the mails will hereafter be considered, unless the "test oath" of the bidder is on file at the Department. A contractor must be twenty-one years old to enable him to give a legal bond. The proposals must be signed by the bidder or bidders. The guaranty by not less than two guarantors, and the certificate by a Postmaster or a judge of record.

Place a 5c. revenue stamp on it, and send by mail, direct to Contract Office, Postoffice Department, Washington, D. C.

2. Persons whose names are sent on for appointment, as Postmaster, &c., must be twenty-one, must take the "test oath," which must be sent with the bond after the appointment is made.

Old Post-Offices may be moved short distances to accommodate the neighborhood, without changing the name of the office.

Any one over 16 years may carry the mail, by taking the "test oath."

I hereby tender my thanks to the members of the Convention, for their cheerful co-operation with me, and for the aid they have given me in establishing mail facilities in various parts of the State.

Hoping, hereafter, gentlemen, to receive more such acts of kindness at your hands, I have the honor to be your ob't. serv't.

A. JOBE.
Special Agent.

Petersburg Express.

We regret much to record that the entire establishment of this old and valued journal was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 13th inst. Messrs. A. F. Crutchfield & Co., the proprietors, hope to revive it again in ten or twelve days. We hope their loss and suspension will only be temporary.

Old North State.

The editors of this paper have suspended the Daily and now issue it Tri-Weekly. It is eminently conservative and is doing good service. It has nailed to its mast head the name of Jonathan Worth. We trust the success of our cotemporary will be equal to its merits.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

FRIDAY, June 15, 1866.

Mr. Boyden, from the Committee to which was referred the message of the Governor in relation to Swamp Lands, reported an ordinance to amend the chapter of the Revised Code entitled "Swamp Lands."

Mr. Faircloth moved a suspension of the rules that the ordinance might have its several readings.

Mr. Mebane moved to lay the motion on the table. Not agreed to, yeas 31, nays 66.

The question recurring on the motion to suspend the rules, it did not prevail, yeas 57, nays 39. Two-thirds not voting in the affirmative.

Mr. Conigland introduced a resolution in relation to the tax proposed to be levied by Congress on cotton in the hands of the producer.

Mr. Jones, of Davidson, a resolution that the Convention, from and after to-day, confine its action solely to questions of Constitutional amendment.

Mr. Bynum, an ordinance to change the time of holding elections in North Carolina.

Mr. Howard, an ordinance to incorporate the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company.

Mr. Starbuck, an ordinance to amend the Charter of the Salem Fire Company.

On motion of Mr. Satterthwaite the Convention took up a resolution in favor of the Principal Clerk. The rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted. (Gives the Principal Clerk of the Convention the compensation allowed the Clerks of the General Assembly for copying the Journals, &c.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS—THE STAY LAW.

The Convention resumed the consideration of the ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein.

Numerous amendments were offered and discussed. The standing rule adjourning the Convention at 3 o'clock P. M., was suspended, and the debate continued until 3½ o'clock P. M., when the question recurring on the passage of the ordinance, it passed its second reading, as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Bagley, Baines, Berry, Bingham, Brown, Bryan, Burgin, Bynum, Caldwell of Burke, Conigland, Dick, Dickey, Dockery, Faulkner, Ferebee, Foy, Garland, Garrett, Grissom, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Haynes, Hodge, Howard, Jackson, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Joyner, Logan, Love, of Jackson, McCauley, McCorkle, McKoy, of Sampson, McKay, of Harnett, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, McIvor, Nat McLean, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Chatham, Murphy, Norfleet, Odom, Patterson, Pearsall, Perkins, Person, Phillips, Polk, Richardson, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Satterthwaite, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Wilkes, Spencer, of Hyde, Thompson, Willey, Winburne and Wright,—66.

The Convention then adjourned.

In his speech at a late cane presentation, Hon. D. W. Voorhees, in allusion to being deprived of his seat in Congress, forcibly said:

"It was simply an expulsion for opinion's sake, and not an inquiry into my rights as a representative. On this subject my mind has never been disturbed. It is an act which can only injure those who perpetrated it. On me it has inflicted neither a wound nor a stain. I can scorn the triumph of my enemies, triumphing as I do on this question in the hearts of honest men everywhere."

SPEECH OF
MR. BYNUM, OF LINCOLN,

Delivered in Convention, Saturday, June 9, 1866, on the proposition to amend the Constitution of the State, so as to base representation on white population, in both branches of the Legislature.

Mr. Bynum said:—

MR. PRESIDENT: Having, as the organ of the Committee to whom the matter was referred, reported the ordinance before the Convention, it may not be improper for me to make a brief explanation of the ordinance, and the views of a part of the Committee who did not concur in the 1st section of the ordinance as reported.

The Constitution declares that the House of Commons shall be composed of one hundred and twenty members, to be elected by Counties according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, three-fifths of all persons. The recent ordinance of our Convention abolishing slavery in the State, has made all the inhabitants of the State "free persons," so that, unless the Constitution shall be amended, it, by its own force, changes the basis of representation, contrary to the intention of the framers of it, and against the organic will of the people.

The basis of representation having been thus destroyed, as a result of the late war, the question was presented to the committee, what shall be the future basis of apportionment?—Shall it be the number or taxable polls? Shall it be the number of legal voters? Shall it be the whole population, black and white, or shall it be white population, only? The two first propositions, of taxable polls or legal voters, seemed inadmissible to the committee, because the first would be in part, a black basis, and the second would be too difficult of ascertainment, with exactness, to afford a stable and reliable basis. To adopt the whole population, white and black, as the true basis of representation, seemed to the committee unjust and inexpedient, as it confers political power without incurring the corresponding political responsibility, and its manifest tendency and legal effect, would be, to divert the controlling power of the State from the hands of the many to the hands of the few. Unless the negro is allowed the right of suffrage, he cannot be a basis of representation, for a true basis implies the relationship of constituent and representative, of voter and the person voted for. I do not say that I would oppose a limited negro suffrage, but until he is allowed to vote, I see no more justice in counting him in the apportionment, than in counting the trees of a forest as a basis of apportionment. He neither asks nor desires it, and the only effect of such a procedure would be, to increase the present inequality of political power of the white population, without any benefit to the negro, or equivalent to the State at large.

It has been urged by some, that if we adopt the black population as a basis of apportionment, a like basis will be adopted in the Federal Constitution, and thus give us more members of the House of Representatives. This objection is founded in a misapprehension. There is no proposition before Congress, and it is plain that there will be none, to make the negro a basis of apportionment, unless he is allowed the right of suffrage.

Sir, six years ago, few of us believed the negro would ever be liberated in the South by any human power. Two years ago, few of us believed that he would be set free by an ordinance of our own people. One year ago, few of us believed he would be allowed to testify against a white man, and six months ago, few of us believed that he would be made the equal of the white man before the law. I believe that the end is not yet. Even if the pressure of Federal power should be removed, there is turned loose upon us an element of physical power and social disturbance, that demands the highest order of wisdom and statesmanship to control and engraft into our political system as an element of strength, security or peace. We may postpone; we cannot escape the encounter.

While free negroes were few and sparsely scattered over the State, they were lost in the general mass, without the power of organization, or the numbers to excite apprehension.—Now, we have one-third of the entire population of the State, released from the bonds of slavery, clothed with all the muniments of the law, planted in a representative government, whose political dogmas, bills of right, and constitutions, proclaim equality; with strong dispositions to organization; passionate, sensuous, impressible to influences from without and within the State; in a nation now dizzy with the dreams, the inspirations, or, more probably, the fanaticisms of social and political progress, and this, too, at the end of a civil war which has upheaved the foundations of the social fabric, shattered the constitution, revolutionized the government, and embodied its final results in organized radicalism and constitutional intolerance. This powerful element may brook delay, but not defeat. When equal civil rights are conceded, political rights cannot be long withheld. When you declare that all political power is vested in and derived from the people only, that the people of this State ought not to be taxed without the consent of themselves or their representatives, in general assembly, freely given, that the people have the right to assemble together to consult for their common good, and to apply to the legislature for redress of grievances; and that, for redress of grievances and amending the laws, elections ought to be often held, you lay down a series of fundamental principles that now support the claims of the black as well as the white. A wise statesmanship would seem to require of us, to anticipate danger by providing against it, to allay discontent before it swells into convulsion, by providing a gradually ascending scale of political right, which will disarm clamor, encourage the black race and strengthen the State.

But, Mr. President, it may be, and I think so, is, that the people are not yet prepared for this change in our organic law.

Assuming, then, that the right of suffrage will be denied to the black, and, therefore, that he cannot justly be made a basis of white representation, it is easy to show that, by the present basis, the political power of the State is vested in a minority of the legal voters, and in a minority of the white population.

The greatest contrast is presented in the extreme Eastern and Western counties, lessening as you approach the centre, where it almost disappears.

I will submit a few illustrations, first as to the House of Commons.

1. Pitt has a population of 7,480, and 2 members of the Commons.

Randolph has a population of 14,716, and 2 members of the Commons.

One voter in Pitt is equal to two in Randolph.

2. Bertie has a population of 5,806, and 2 members.

Davidson has a population of 13,376, and 2 members.

Two voters in Bertie are equal to five in Davidson.

3. Halifax has a population of 6,600, and 2 members.

Yadkin has a population of 9,100, and 1 member—10,615 in Buncombe.

One voter in Halifax is equal to 3 in Yadkin and Buncombe.

4. Take four counties, viz: Halifax, Northampton, Warren and Jones, with a population of 19,632. They have seven members of Commons.

Take Buncombe and Yadkin with a population of 19,715, and only two members. Here two voters are equal to seven.

This inequality of political rights is not altogether sectional, and I do not lay any stress upon the fact that it generally subsists between the East and the West. The difference between Caswell and Lincoln is as great as between Bertie and Buncombe; between Anson and Watauga, as between Craven and Cleaveland. So one voter in Caswell and Anson is equal to two in Columbus, Carteret or Tyrell. The objection lies to the inequality wherever it exists, East West or centre.

If we look to the composition of the Senate, we find this unequal distribution of power still greater:

1. The eight extreme eastern senatorial districts contain a population of 50,398, and are entitled to eight members of the Senate. The eight western districts contain a population of 201,758 white souls, and only an equal number of Senators. In other words, 6,299 men in the eight first districts are equal to 25,219 in the eight last districts.

2. Again: Hertford with a population of 3,957, has one Senator. Buncombe district with a population of near 30,000, has one Senator, or one voter in Hertford is equal to seven in Buncombe.

3. Martin has 5,435, and one Senator, while the Haywood district, with 30,872 whites, has only one Senator, or one voter in Martin is equal to six in Haywood. And so of Bertie, Northampton and Warren, contrasted with Rutherford, Iredell and Surry.

4. Take the aggregate population of Hertford, Bertie, Northampton and Martin, and it is 21,097, with four Senators, contrast it with the districts of Buncombe, Haywood, Iredell and Surry, with a population of 119,206, and four Senators, and it is 21,000 to 119,000, or nearly one to six.

It will thus be seen, Mr. President, by a careful examination, that much less than one-half the white population has the controlling power in the House of Commons, while one-third of the white population has the controlling power in the Senate, and that the entire government in North Carolina is vested in a minority of the people.

As to the House of Commons, which is supposed to represent population, I have endeavored to show that, unless we allow negro suffrage, the white basis must be adopted. I shall pass that over, and, in the next place, affirm that white population should also be the basis of representation in the Senate.

I agree, Mr. President, that government is not theoretical only, but, also, a practical institution, and that natural justice must often yield to necessity and policy. I agree that you cannot measure, divide, subdivide and distribute the powers of government with mathematical exactness, like you can an orange or a cube.—But our Constitution declares that a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles, is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty, and the first section of the bill of rights lays down the foundation-stone of all republican and representative governments, to be "that all political power" is vested in and derived from the people, only.

It is admitted that the people, in organizing a government for themselves, may limit their natural rights thus clearly asserted, and that they may, perhaps, vest the powers of government in a minority of the people, if they so choose, but, in how revising their Constitution, it is our duty to survey the whole field, and especially that part which contradicts the time-honored maxims of representative government, and denies the political equality of men.

Upon what principle is it that a man in one county has the vote and political power of seven men in another county, and that from no merit, but the accident of peace? Providence planted the hills and the vallies, the barren mountains of Stokes and Surry, and the fertile plains of the Roanoke. Why should one vote at the mouth of the Roanoke be equal to six at the source of its tributary, the Dan? The friends of the present basis of the Senate, place its claims upon the ground that one branch of the Legislature should be the representative and guardian of property, the other of the people, and that the equilibrium of government is best preserved by mutual checks.

It is admitted that property must be protected, but how does this prove that the poor land of Henderson is not entitled to equal protection with the rich land of Hyde? That the poor man's little is not as dear to him as the rich man's much, and that he not as anxious to protect it by wholesome laws? Why is it that the owner of $1000 in Craven has four times the political power of the owner of $50,000 in Henderson? That this property basis applies not to individuals as such, but to communities as such? The counties and corporations of the State have the power of taxation through the people or their representatives, and we hear no complaint of injustice or oppression in the exercise of this power. Why should property be less secure or justice worse administered when confided to the majority of the people of the whole State? Place one hundred men from Buncombe and one hundred from Craven, in this capitol to make laws, natural right and natural justice would give them an equal vote, but the Constitution gives the Craven men five times the vote of Buncombe, and of course Buncombe is at the mercy of Craven. But it is answered that if numbers is the measure of power, Craven is at the mercy of Buncombe.—That is true. One proposition is an offset to the other and we are driven back to the first principles of representative republics, to decide any conflict between these two counties. There must be a supreme and controlling power in every State, and in a republic, that controlling power is, in cases of dispute, vested in the majority. If you deny this, you destroy the foundation on which the government rests. Then why should the minority in Craven govern the majority in Buncombe? And in disputed cases, why should not the majority of Buncombe rule the minority of Craven? Our government is based upon faith in majorities—that the many are more apt to do right than the few—that two heads are better than one.

But it is urged, that those who contribute the taxes should have the power of disbursing them. That is conceded; but the inference they would draw from this proposition by no means follows that those who pay the largest portion of taxes, should disburse the whole, their own and their poor neighbors. All history and experience prove that $10,000 is as dear to its owner as $100,000 to its owner, and that both would be actuated by an equal anxiety to protect their property and to enact just and impartial laws. When money is paid into the public treasury for the public benefit, if the minority who contributed most, had the power of its disbursement, wretched would be the condition of the toiling many who made an equal contribution according to their means. And has not the majority in our State, in times past, suffered from this unequal distribution of power?

But it is objected, that the large tax-paying Counties get no equivalent therefor, unless in a greater political power. Is this true? Do they not have the protection of the laws, equal to their estates? Are not the bodies and lives of the 10,000 in Buncombe devoted to the defence and protection of the 3,000 in Hertford? Let the history of the last five years forever silence that objection.

It is again objected that the Senate was intended to be a check upon the commons. If that were true, it would by no means follow, that the Senate itself should represent only the minority and not the majority of the people.—I do not object to the Senate as a checking power, but to the composition of the Senate itself, as anti-republican and not reflecting the will and the majesty of the people. The Senate should be so constituted as not to defeat the will of the people, by resting upon a minority basis, or antagonistic principles, but to effect the public will, by co-operating with the commons in giving well-considered and deliberate form and substance to legislation, for they are co-ordinate parts, not of different, but of the same branch of government.

There is no analogy between the Senate of the United States and the Senate of North Carolina. Our Senate is based upon property unequally distributed, theirs not upon property or wealth, but upon the sovereignty, individuality and equality of States. The diminutive State of Delaware, with its population of 120,000, is the equal of the powerful State of New York with her 4,000,000 of people and boundless wealth; and this not upon the idea of a checking power of one upon the other, but because the little State or man, Delaware, is a sovereign, and therefore the equal of the great state or man, New York.

This contrast between the two governments affords a strong argument for the individual political equality of men, as a basis of representation.

Upon what principle of the crudest form of a republican government is it, that twenty-six Senators represent a white population of 190,000, while twenty four Senators represent a population, 441,000? Why is it that 180,000 elect one half the Senators, while 270,000 are not represented at all and are constitutionally disfranchised?

If the ordinance abolishing slavery should have the effect claimed for it, of transferring the taxable basis westward, as it will to some extent do, the injustice of the rule would still remain. If it should ultimately remove property and representation to the West and leave the Eastern counties disfranchised as the Western counties now are, it would only make the natural and radical injustice of the property basis the more apparent. There would then be a cry from another quarter for a change of the basis with justice.

For fifty years before the Convention of '35, each county alike was represented by one Senator and two members of the House of Commons. That inequality became such a grievance, that the Convention of 1835 was called mainly to equalize it. Yet, that body met with its hands tied to one remedy only, that of taxation as the basis of the Senate, and Federal population as the basis of the House. Was that a remedy? Is not the inequality greater now than before the amendment of 1835? This Convention would approach nearer political equality by undoing the work of 1835 and restoring to each county one Senator and two Commoners.

The ground of complaint will never be removed or harmony restored, but in one way, and that is by making population the basis of representation in both houses. Establish that rule and let it work out its own results. All will submit to it, because it reognizes the equality of men; because it embodies two great ideas of modern thought; the first, that equality in representation, if attainable, is matter of right, of justice, of humanity, of the higher morals, and not of caprice or convenience only. And the second, that one great view of true reform, and a real progress, is peaceably and gradually to remove the artificial inequalities which history has produced; to cause the law ever to tend towards the perfectly humane and the perfectly just; and to bring political and civil rights nearer and nearer to the rights of nature. "The representation of land or money," said Sir James McIntosh, echoing the sentiments of Edmund Burke, "is a monstrous relic of ancient prejudice; men only can be represented, and population alone, ought to regulate the number of representatives which any district delegates."

What, then, is the proposed advantage of property as a basis, to population as a basis of representation? The electors are the same, the qualifications of senators are the same, the composition of the body, itself, is substantially the same, whether viewed as a conservative element, or a checking power to the co-ordinate branch—the house of commons—but the distribution of senators is unequal and obnoxious.

Why, then, obstinately cling to this odious and useless relic of ancient prejudice? Why persist in thrusting into the faces of the people this defiance to all the maxims of a representative republic? If the accident of peace, or fortune, should bestow wealth upon one community, shall the absence of the same accident or fortune to another sister community, consign her to infamy and political disfranchisement? In a nation of equals, shall the organic law measure a man's legal privileges by the length of his purse? If the people are alive and sensitive to any one political grievance above all others, it is to this denial of the sum and consumation of all their yearnings and struggles, for past ages—equality. The history of all civilizations—from the Roman secession to Mons Sacra, down to the American revolution—is but the recorded struggle of right against might, of the people, to tear from the hands of power and prejudice, that equality which God has engraved upon their hearts and consciences.

I will now, Mr. President, briefly sum up the result at which I have arrived, and relieve the patience of the Convention:

1. I have endeavered to show that much less than one-half of the white population of the State controls the majority of the people, in the house of commons, while in the senate, one-third of the people have the controlling power over the other two-thirds, and that the legislature, in neither branch, nor in both together, represents a majority of the people, and is, therefore anti-republican in character.

2. I have intimated that a wise political forecast would require of us, that we should give a restricted right of suffrage to all the citizens of the State, as the surest foundation for the peace, security and stability of our government.

3. I have shown that, without the right of suffrage, there is no pretense of reason or policy, for making the negro a basis of representation in the house of commons.

4. Assuming that the negro, not having the right of voting, and not bearing the relation of constituent to representative, will, at once, cease to be a basis of apportionment, I endeavored to show that the white population is the natural, just and equal basis, for the house of commons.

5. I undertook to establish that taxation or property, as a basis for the senate, is contrary to the maxims of republics, invidious and unequal in application that, in the words of John Milton, "there can be no fundamenal law which is not grounded on right reason, in justice, and in moral right." That the right of suffrage is a right dear to the people, but of what value is that right, when you say that 500 men in one district shall elect one senator, and 5,000 men in another district shall elect only one and that they both shall have an equal voice? It is true, you give to every man an equal right to vote but when you say that the vote of every man shall not have an equal weight in the government, you destroy the whole value of that right. Suppose you were to declare that five hundred voters in Hertford—that county having that number of voters—should elect one senator, and that in Haywood district, which has five thousand voters, only five hundred out of the five thousand should vote for senator! Would it not be regarded as monstrous injustice? Yet that is the precise case now!

6. I then endeavored to show that population is the true, just and natural basis of representation, conforming both to the letter and spirit of the American government, and is the only basis which can allay discontent and secure the lasting harmony and cordial co-operation of the whole people of the State, in its administration.

That there should be a different basis of the two houses, as a check, the one upon the other, is untrue. The wisdom of our system and the legitimate check, consists in having two houses, sitting in separate chambers, of unequal numbers, and deliberating apart, and independent, in one or the other. There is no reason why they both should not be essentially popular in this State, as they are in nearly all the other States, of the Union. For while it is true that constitutions are made to protect the rights of minorities, it is no less true, that their grand design and perfection, consist in the full, deliberate and mature development of the will of the majority. Such must be the end of all free governments.

It, then, the constitution of North Carolina not only protects the rights of the minority, but actually overthrows and subverts the will of the majority, and substitutes that of the minority, as the ruling power in the State, honor and justice overriding those pretty local advgantages which the present system confers, should urge us to this comprehensive and catholic reform of the constitution.

For the Sentinel.

Public Meeting in Franklin.

Pursuant to public call, a very large and respectable portion of the citizens of Franklin County assembled at the Court House, in Louisburg, on Tuesday 12th day of June, it being June Court week, for the purpose of consulting together upon the interests of the country.—Whereupon, on motion of Col. Wm. F. Green, Maj. D. S. Hill were appointed President, and A. S. Gill and W. H. Furman, Esqs., Secretaries.

On motion of Gen. J. B. Littlejohn, it was resolved that a committee of seven be appointed by the chair, to report resolutions for the action of the meeting; whereupon, the following gentlemen were appointed, viz: Gen. J. B. Littlejohn, A. D. Williams, W. I. Mings, M. Lankford, W. M. Mitchell, Esqs., Gen. P. B. Hawkins and Dr. P. S. Foster

During the absence of the committee, the meeting was addressed by D. W. Spivey, Esq., Col. W. F. Green, Capt. J. J. Davis, Rev. Dr. Closs and others.

The committee returned and reported the following resolutions, which after thorough discussion and due deliberation, were adopted seriatim by the meeting.

WHEREAS, The people of Franklin, claiming to be true and law-abiding citizens of the United States, and of the State of North Carolina, and believing it to be the right and duty of the people in primary meetings, frankly and feely to express their opinions of public affairs, therefore

Resolved, That we view with extreme pain the efforts now making to thwart the policy of President Johnson to restore the late revolting States to their former position in the Union, and to effect a speedy reconciliation of the two sections, North and South, of this Republic.

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in the wisdom and integrity of President Johnson, and do most heartily endorse his administration and policy, as promising the best means of reconciling our distracted country which has been proposed.

Resolved, That, forgetting the differences of the past and sincerely anxious for the restoration of harmony and Union, we implore our fellow-citizens to put away strife and dissention, and unite with us in one common effort to promote the quiet of society and the recuperation of our wasted and desolated country.

Resolved, That the long, consistent political record of Jonathan Worth, of Randolph, his sterling practical good sense, his uncorrupted moral character his even and impartial administration as Governor of the State, and his known devotion to the policy of President Johnson to restore the Union, entitles him to our highest approval and entire confidence; and we do therefore most earnestly recommend him to the people for re-election.

Resolved, That in the present condition of national affairs, we deprecate the formation of adverse political parties and the developement of discordant issues in the South; that there should be among our people but one mind and one aim, and that the complete reconciliation of the Union on the plan of President Johnson, as opposed to Radicalism in all its forms.

Resolved, That the State Convention having been called for the sole purpose of restoring the State upon the plan of President Johnson, and the conditions having been fulfilled on the part of the State to the entire approbation of the President, we deprecate and condemn any disposition on its part, to devote its time to ordinary legislation; and further, that the condition of our people and of the Public Treasury, does not, warrant its continuance a day longer than the accomplishment of the object for which it was created.

Resolved, That as North Carolinians we are proud of, and will ever hold sacred, the memory of our ancestors, who, at Mecklenburg, on the 20th of May, 1775, long prior to the 4th of July, 1776, declared in the face of power, that the principles of civil liberty should ever be dear to the whole American people, and that we glory in the spirit and readiness with which they hastened to the aid of Massachusetts, and encouraged her in resisting the tyrannical doctrine of taxation without representation; and that we now peaceably but earnestly protest against that doctrine as applied to us, their descendents.

On motion, it was further resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the President and Secretaries, and forwarded for publication to the Louisburg Eagle and Raleigh Sentinel, with the request that the Progress, Standard and other papers in the State will publish the same.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—Yesterday as the mail train east was crossing the Trent river bridge, a telegraph poll was blown down and fell across the track in front of the engine. Two of our workmen, Messrs. Cooley and Walden, happened to be close by—Cooley rushed in front of the train and signalled it to stop, while Walden removed the obstruction. But for the timely aid of these two printers the whole train might have been precipitated into the river, for it seems to have been doubtful whether the engineer, after discovering the obstruction, could have stopped the train in time to save it. The present management should put these two types on the "D. H." list.—Newbern Commercial.

A meeting of the officers, committees and members of the "Memorial Association" is respectfully requested at the residence of Mrs. Gen'l Branch at 5 o'lock, P. M., Saturday, the 16th June. A full attendance is particularly desired as business of interest and importance will be submitted.

MRS. L. O'B. BRANCH, Pres.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—B. F. Williamson, & Co. have their third great Auction on the 20th inst.

Hughes' Academy, six miles from Hillsboro, will open its next session on the second Monday in July.

Maxon & Strong will offer their entire stock at auction this afternoon.

Auction at J. M. Towles' Auction store to-day.

J. J. Litchford offers Corn, to close out.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.—The Commencement at this institution we learn was a decided success. The sermon by Rev. Mr. Dally, and the Concert are highly spoken of.

President Jones announces the next session in to-days issue. The prospects of the institution are encouraging.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—We learn that Washington Harris, Esq., will be the candidate for the State Senate, and Capt. J. J. Davis for the Commons, in Franklin County. If so, we presume it will be useless for any one to say No! They are both for Jonathan Worth and Andrew Johnson.

A tournament came off at Enfield last Tuesday, which was highly successful. Mr. Francis Manning, Knight of California, was the successful competitor, crowning Miss Mary B. Hunter, of the same place. The riding was good, and the festivities very pleasant.

Governor Worth.

On our first page will be found an address to the people of North Carolina, from Governor Worth, announcing himself a candidate for re-election to the office of Governor, in August next.

We have heard through rumor, the names of two gentlemen, one of whom would probably be the opponent of Gov. Worth. At the distance we are from the Head Centre of cliques, caucuses and Conventions—Raleigh—we cannot tell what is the condition of the political state. This we do know that our present Executive has performed his arduous duties in the trying emergencies through which we are passing with marked ability, and, so far as we have heard, with unanimous approbation. Differing with Gov. Worth in politics so radically as we have, we could not be expected, in every instance, to endorse all he has done, but we must confess that he has, by an honest and able administration of his office and by regarding himself as the representative of the people and not of a party, in almost every instance, met our unqualified approval, and we are to-day more convinced of his eminent fitness for his exalted and responsible position, than when we, in November last, cheerfully gave him our vote.

Gov. Worth has, by an honest and straightforward dealing with the administrntion at Washington, done much to relieve our people, and we believe North Carolina is indebted to him for being in a better civil condition than many of her Southern sister States. We have less party divisions, and our people, conscious that their welfare is in good and safe keeping, are devoting themselves to the work of retrieving their former prosperity with commendable zeal, and we hope they will not be drawn from their great work by an exciting and useless campaign.

We fear there are ambitious men in our State, who would sacrifice its peace and prosperity to reverse the decision of the people at the ballot-box last Fall, and we will probably witness one of the most exciting campaigns this Summer, ever had in North Carolina.

We will refer to this subject again.—Wil. Journal.

No Taxation without Representation.

That taxation should only be with the consent of the taxed, through their own representatives, is a cardinal principle of all free governments; but it is not true that taxation and representation must go together under all circumstances and at every moment of time.—Reconstruction Committee's Report.

Let us look into this sentence of this, the most lame and impotent argument men calling themselves, and occupying the position of, statesmen, ever offered to the ridicule of an intelligent people.

How can a principle be cardinal in a free government, and yet not binding "under all circumstances?"

Webster (orthodox authority with Fessenden and Boutwell) gives fundamental as the synonym of cardinal; and, defining fundamental, he says "pertaining to the basis or foundation; and hence essential."

Therefore, a principle when cardinal is essential, in other words, a free government cannot exist without its recognition.—Norfolk Virginian.

VEGETABLES FOR THE NEW YORK MARKETS.—The Goodspeed steamers now regularly take large quantities of early vegetables from this market to New York. The Terry which sailed yesterday, took squashes, beans, cucumbers, peas, potatoes, &c. We understand that a wagon load of potatoes were refused by the Agent of the steamers, they not being in good shipping order. Shippers will make a note of this.—Newbern Commercial.

REVIVAL.—The revival which has been in progress for several days, at the 5th Street Episcopal Methodist church, in this city, seems to be increasing in interest. Services are held every night and many penitents are presenting themselves at the altar for prayer. The Pastor, Rev. J. C. Thomas, is working faithfully, and has sent for more ministerial help, which we hope he will soon have, as he needs assistance.—Wil. Journal.

There are to be three lectures in Danville next week. Dr. Atkinson will lecture on "Woman," Col. Farrar on "Johnny Reb," and S. S. Bryant, Esq., on "The Devil, his Origin and appearance." What an association! Women, Rebels and the—Devil! Not a trinity, but a trio!—Enquirer.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 15.

The Senate finance committee have fixed the tax on cotton at 2 cts. per pound. Probably the two Houses will compromise on three cents. The general principles of the House bill are not altered.

The New Hampshire Republicans have nominated James W. Patterson, the present member of the House, for the U. S. Senate.

Fears are entertained for the clipper ship "Monarch of the Sea," now 40 days over-due from Liverpool. She sailed from that port March 20th with 700 passengers.

Northern Legislatures.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.

Anticipating the adoption of the constitutional amendment passed by the U. S. Senate and just concurred in by the House, Gov. Curtin of Penn. has addressed circulars to the Governors of the Northern States suggesting the propriety of Union in acting and the calling together the Legislatures for the immediate ratification of the amendment and before the adjournment of Congress.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

SENATE.—Mr. Morgan presented the memorial of the Chamber of Commerce in favor of a Bankrupt law. He expressed himself in favor of the bill, and hoped it would be reported at an early day for the Judiciary Committee.

HOUSE.—Bills were passed establishing assay offices in Oregon and Idaho. The debate on the bill to restore political rights of the Southern States, was continued. Among the speakers was Mr. Harris, of Maryland, who reiterated the right of the Southern States to secede.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

Samuel Harrison formerly clerk in the Confederate Postoffice Department, committed suicide for want of employment and reduced circumstances.

The Star asserts that the votes of the more conservative Union men were obtained for the constitutional amendment by pledges from their radical colleagues that no action should be taken during the present session upon the bills also reported from the joint committee on reconstruction. This virtually refers the whole matter to the people. Considerable excitement on the steps in front of the Capitol to-day.—Rousseau, who had a rattan, approached Grinnell, and said he had waited several days for him to apologise for the outrageous assault made on him in debate. Grinnell said, "I have no apology to make." Rousseau then caned him. Grinnell offered no resistance whatever. When Rousseau had finished the flagellation, Grinnell said, "it is all right," and the parties separated.

Another death from Cholera occurred on yesterday in 35th Street, New York.

Santa Anna Addresses the Mexicans.

Santa Anna issues a stiring address to his countrymen from Elizabethtown, N. J. The General defines his position in reference to the present aspect of Mexican politics and the reports of his truckling to Maximilian. He did not in any manner compromise himself with the Empire. He belonged entirely to the Mexican Republic. He expects all Mexicans to unite and drive the usurpers from their soil, and offers his own services to the cause.

A monarchy in Mexico he declares to be an impossibility, and the restoration of the Republic is the height of his ambition. No other purpose he says could draw him from his retirement, and this accomplished he will return to private life. In conclusion, he says he will not close his life with falsehood, but seek for his tomb a new laurel tree whose shadow shall cover it in the midst of peace.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq., President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure in my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintance, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quanitatives, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supersecing all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box but taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is sure by wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as it has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints.

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions St. Anthony's Fire Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtue of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from fit ordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inactions of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

DR. MAGGIEL'S

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and reinvigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

PROSPECTUS.

BALTIMORE EPISCOPAL METHODIST.

The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist will be issued in this city the first of next month. Its publication will be under the mangement of the Rev. JOHN POISAL, DR. THOMAS E. BOND and REV. S. S. ROSZEL, Editors. The "Episcopal Methodist," of Richmond, Virginia, having been transferred to Baltimore, Bishop Doggett and Rev. J. E. Edwards will continue their services as Editoral correspondents. Rev. C. K. Marshall, D. D., General Agent. The best talent of the Southern Church will be employed upon its columns. The publisher has the pleasure to announce that contributions may be expected from Bishop Pierce of Georgia, Bishop Marvin of Texas, Bishop McTyeir of Alabama, Bishop Wightman of South Carolina, Dr. Summers of Nashville, Dr. Marshall of Mississippi, Dr. Hoston of Kentucky, and others.

The contributions of some of the most eminent men of other denominations will also enrich its columns: Rev. Dr. Palmer of New Orleans, Dr. Burgett, of Mobile, Dr. Bullock of Baltimore, Prof. McGuffy of the University of Virginia, Rev. Peyton Harrison, and others.

It is designed to make the paper the great organ of the Episcopal Methodist Church, yet in no partizan sense will it be denominational. The General Conference which recently met at New Orleans, and the whole people of the South concede to Baltimore a name and prestige as the proper place for its publication. No pains or expense will be spared to make it a first-class Journal and a welcome visiter to every Christian household. The names of the gentlemen who will have the Editorial management of the paper, and the corps of able coadjutors associated with them are the best pledge to its patrons, that they will find the Episcopal Methodist in its spirit and teaching, the advocate of conservative principles and a bulwark of defense against the dangerous tendencies of the times.

We deem it proper to assure our friends, that the salutary measures of reform, which were adopted by the late General Conference, meet the cordial approval of the conductors of this paper. As it will represent every State and Conference in the South, it will afford the best advertising medium in all our business and social relations. It invites a renewal in a stronger form of those commercial and fraternal ties which must bind Baltimore and the South more closely together.

This important organ of communication between our respective communities, will be published regularly once a week, on fine paper, large type and quarto size at $4.00 per annum, or $2.00 for six months, invariably in advance.

Office of publication, 332 W. Baltimore Street, Selby & Dulaney, where subscriptions and advertisements may be left; also at the Banking House of Wm. T. Smithson & Co., 2224 Baltimore St. Wm. Devries & Co., 312 Baltimore St.; J. W. Bruff & Co., 245 Baltimore St.; Hopkins, Harden & Kemp, 336 Baltimore St.; Charles Hoffman, 377 W. Baltimore St.; Banking House, Thomas & Co., 176 W. Baltimore St.; Drug Store, Dr. J. L. Gibbons, corner Eutaw and M. H. Waite's Book Store, 138 Baltimore St. All the members of the Southern General Conference are authorized Agents. The preachers of the several annual Conferences and clergymen generally, are requested to act as agents for this paper.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below], proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail road will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice of commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or inefficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars (5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point
